JSON VIEWER

JSON Beautifier And Viewer

<https://sizzy.co/>

Instead of viewing huge JSON file data in a clumsy unreadable format in your browser, JSON viewer helps to arrange JSON data in a visually appealing tree format which can view directly in your browser window.

SESSIONS BUDDY

Tab/Session Manager

<https://sessionbuddy.com/>

Session Buddy is a unified session manager and bookmark manager.

The screenshot shows the Session Buddy application interface. At the top, there's a blue header bar with a search input field labeled "Search sessions" and a magnifying glass icon. To the right of the search bar are three icons: a grid for "OPEN", a list for "SESSIONS", and a gear for "SETTINGS".

Below the header, the main area is divided into two sections: "Current Session" on the left and "Saved Sessions" on the right.

Current Session: This section shows a single session named "New Puppy!". It indicates it was "Changed a few seconds ago" and contains "4 Tabs".

Saved Sessions: This section lists several sessions:

- New Puppy! (highlighted with a blue background) - Saved 6 days ago, 7 Tabs. This session is expanded, showing its contents:
 - Training: How to Train a Puppy, Starting your puppy off right!, Dog Training Basics
 - Food: Healthy Development Puppy Food, Pet Food & Treats, Chicken Fillets Dog Treats, Puppy Bites Lamb & Salmon Treats
- Books - Updated 8 days ago, 19 Tabs
- Funny - Updated 8 days ago, 7 Tabs
